

About KB Comm...

KB Comm was founded by Katherine Breuninger in 2006 to provide technical communication consulting services to the scientific and engineering communities. Charles Breuninger joined KB Comm in 2008, and the firm's core offering expanded to include business and marketing communication as well as instructional design and training development.

The principals in KB Comm have over 45 years of combined experience in the fields of technical, business, and marketing communication; instructional design; and training development. Prior to founding KB Comm, they were employed in senior-level professional and managerial roles by some of the world's most prestigious and well-known companies.

Our principals' former employers and current clients include Fortune 50 enterprises, industry consortia, and not-for-profit organizations engaged in chemical, pharmaceutical, medical device, healthcare diagnostics, and high-tech manufacturing; scientific research; information technology; financial services; and management consulting.
